Table S1. Additional exclusion criteria.

At any time in the past:
History of serious systemic or dermatologic conditions
History of an AIDS-defining illness
History of allergies to vaccine products, adhesives or polyester
History of significant drug or alcohol abuse
History of diabetes, bleeding disorders, or lymph node irradiation
History of treatment with antiretrovirals during acute HIV infection
Within 6 months prior to study entry:
Receipt of an experimental HIV vaccine or systemic immunomodulatory therapy
Within 24 weeks prior to study entry:
Plasma HIV RNA >500 copies/mL in the 24 weeks prior to study entry
Within 12 weeks prior to study entry:
Receipt of any investigational product
Within 30 days prior to study entry:
Receipt of any vaccine
Within 2 weeks prior to study entry:
History of treatment with topical corticosteroids at vaccination sites, excessive exposure to sun or tanning lights, and laser hair removal
At study entry:
Pregnancy
Significant laboratory abnormalities
Karnosky score <90
Lack of consistent contraceptive use for women of reproductive potential