

Supplemental Digital Appendix 1

2008 Pre-departure Training Survey of Student and Faculty Representatives from All 17
Canadian Medical Schools, Conducted by the Canadian Federation of Medical Students and the Association of Faculties of Medicine of Canada Global Health Resource Group

1. Does your school provide pre-departure sessions for students participating in international electives?
2. If yes, are the pre-departure sessions mandatory?
3. How frequently are pre-departure sessions offered?
4. What is the cumulative number of hours of the pre-departure sessions?
5. Who administers the pre-departure program?
6. What topics are included in the pre-departure program?
7. Is there a provision for post-exposure HIV prophylaxis for students that choose to work in an HIV endemic area?
8. Does your school provide post-return sessions for students participating in international electives?

Supplemental Digital Appendix 2

2010 Pre-departure Training Survey of Student and Faculty Representatives from All 17 Canadian Medical Schools, Conducted by the Canadian Federation of Medical Students and the Association of Faculties of Medicine of Canada Global Health Resource Group

1. Does your school provide pre-departure sessions for students participating in global health electives?
2. If yes, are they mandatory?
3. How frequently are pre-departure training sessions offered?
4. What is the cumulative number of hours of the pre-departure sessions?
5. What is the format of the training?
6. Who is in charge of planning and implementing pre-departure training?
7. Who ensures pre-departure training happens every year at your institution?
8. What is the approximate budget for your pre-departure training?
9. What topics are included in your training?
10. Are the AFMC-CFMS pre-departure training recommendations used in planning your sessions?
11. Do students have a universal contact at your medical school for support if they encounter issues while on elective?
12. Is there provision for post-exposure HIV prophylaxis (PEP) for students that choose to work in an HIV endemic area?
13. If yes, is PEP funded by your school?
14. Does your school provide post-return sessions for students participating in global health electives?