Online-only content for "Decreasing Patient Agitation Using Individualized Therapeutic Activities" by Waszynski and colleagues in the American Journal of Nursing, October 2013, p. 32-39.

Figure 1. Hartford Hospital Personal Approach Form

PERSONAL APPROACH FORM

Please tell us about Mr./Mrs./Ms so that we can have meaningful interactions during the hospitalization and offer appropriate / enjoyed activities.
Place of birth:
Current or previous occupation(s):
Significant people in his/her life:
Name	Relationship

Favorite Activities

W IN K S S L	READ NEWSPAPER: INDEPENDENT / READ TO
	READ BOOKS: INDEPENDENT / READ TO / ON CD TYPE:
	PLAYING CARDS TYPE:
S.	LISTENING TO MUSIC TYPE:
	WATCHING VIDEOS (Action, Suspense, Horror, Animation, Sports, etc.) TYPE:

Т	T
A	PET'S NAME:(Do
	BOARD GAMES TYPE:
	JIGSAW PUZZLES CROSSWORD PUZZLES WORD SEARCH KNITTING
	CROCHETING CRAFTS OTHER HOBBIES / INTERES	STS:
LIST ANYTHING ELSE YOU WOULD LIKE US TO KNOW: (for example: war veteran, won awards, competed in athletic events, ran for political office)
2 3 4
Date:	filling out form):		