

SCD Table C. Pearson Correlations for Continuous Variables

Pearson correlations were estimated to assess the unadjusted bivariate relationships between the predictor and dependent variables and assess potential multicollinearity among the continuous predictor variables (Table #). These correlations, as well as additional regression diagnostics (i.e., all variance inflation factors less than 5.0), suggest that multicollinearity was not an issue in our analysis.

	1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.	7.	8.
1. Positioning on vision,	-
2. Positioning political env,	0.08	-
3. Challenges	-	-	-
4. Likely future performance	0.56	0.21	-0.43	-
5. Effectiveness	0.67	0.11*	-0.45	0.66	-
6. Shared vision	0.55	0.17	-0.42	0.54	0.65	-
7. Alliance size	0.03	0.02	0.05	0.05	0.02	-0.003	-
8. Gini coefficient	-0.01	0.04	-0.03	0.16	0.16	0.14	0.30	-