

Supplemental Digital Content #1

Device Selection Criteria Survey

Name of Organization: _____

Survey Responder

Name: _____

Job Title: _____

From the 26 characteristics of end user devices below, please rate the top ten that were most important to your organization when selecting a device to be used at the bedside for clinical data entry. (1=highest requirement; 10=lowest requirement)

- _____ Ability to add accessories after initial purchase (proximity card, camera, etc.)
- _____ Ability to carry supplies or medications from one location to another
- _____ Ability to Locate Device
- _____ Ability to Physically Secure Device
- _____ Bar Code Capable
- _____ Battery Life
- _____ Cost
- _____ Data Entry Type (Touchscreen, Keyboard, Stylus)
- _____ Durability (Sturdy, Non-Breakable)
- _____ Ease of Sanitization
- _____ Ease of Use During Patient Rounding
- _____ Ease of Use for Medication Administration
- _____ Electrical Demand
- _____ Encryption Capable
- _____ Hard Wired
- _____ Intuitive to Use / Low Training Needed
- _____ Low Maintenance
- _____ Mobile
- _____ No Data Stored on Device
- _____ Non-Mobile
- _____ Pointing Device Type (Mouse, Touchpad, Trackball, Pointing Stick)

- _____ Screen Size
- _____ Size or Footprint
- _____ Two Factor Login Authentication
- _____ Weight
- _____ Wireless
- _____ Other (fill in the blank) _____
- _____ Other (fill in the blank) _____