

Figure SDC-1. Approximately 2 hours of free-living data for an individual at around midnight with wearing classification, as implemented in the SAS® program for the current algorithm. Although this individual took off the monitor at 11:09 pm and went to bed, the 51-min time interval just before midnight was misclassified as wear.

