

Supplemental Figure. Longitudinal change in susceptibility, as measured on quantitative susceptibility mapping (QSM), of individual rim lesions from patients treated with dimethyl fumarate (left) and glatiramer acetate (right). Each line on the plot represents the longitudinal trajectory of an individual lesion and the lesions are colored by patient.