

Supplemental Digital Content - Figure 1: Correlation between years of follow-up (cycle) and GBV-C status of all patients that were ultimately found to be GBV-C viremic in the HGDS. Black marks indicate the percentage of GBV-C positive samples, while the grey triangles indicate the upper and lower confidence interval (95%). Longer follow-up increases chance of GBV-C infection ($p < 0.001$).