

Appendix e-2: Study questionnaire

1. What program do you represent (please provide program name and location)?
2. Who is the neuroimmunology/MS fellowship director at your institution?
3. How many fellows do you typically accept per year?
4. What is the maximum number of neuroimmunology/MS fellows that your program can support?
5. Does your fellowship program provide visa support?
6. What type of trainees do you recruit into your program?
7. Do your neuroimmunology/MS fellows take call?
8. What is the clinical focus of your program?
9. Which of the following diagnoses would you expect fellows to be exposed to during a clinical fellowship at your institution?
10. REQUIRED rotations or formal didactics.
11. ELECTIVE rotations or formal training.
12. What "other" rotations do your fellows engage in?
13. How long is your typical fellowship duration?
14. How are fellows funded at your program?
15. For how many years is institutional support available to a given fellow?
16. How many fellows can be supported per year using institutionally available funds?
17. From what outside entities do you obtain salary support for Neuroimmunology/MS fellows?
18. What specific funding entities or grant types have you utilized to obtain salary support for Neuroimmunology/MS fellows?
19. What materials do you require as part of your Neuroimmunology/MS fellowship application?
20. What other materials do you require?
21. When do you begin accepting applications?
22. When do you typically conduct interviews?
23. By when have you typically filled your fellowship position/s?
24. Who should applicants contact to apply to your program?
25. What do you consider the greatest challenge faced by your Neuroimmunology/MS fellowship program?
26. If you feel that any of your answers above require clarification, please provide clarification.