

eFigure 1

Schematic illustration of neural structures responsible for abnormal ocular motor findings in our patient. For clarity, only those for vertical gaze are presented (Illustration modified from the work by Rob Flewell, CMI, 2020–2021 BCSC Basic and Clinical Science Course™).

