

Impact of snare wire diameter on resection of small ($\leq 10\text{mm}$) colorectal polyps – a randomized trial

CSP is recommended for small ($\leq 10\text{mm}$) colorectal polyps, however rates of incomplete resection (IRR) vary

Snare design has been hypothesized to reduce IRR, but studies to date are contradictory

CSP for small colorectal polyps can achieve very low IRR, independent of snare design