

Figure 2. 3D reconstruction of the chest CT angiography, posterior view of the heart. The right lung is drained by a single “scimitar” vein (arrow) entering the inferior vena cava (IVC). Both left pulmonary veins (PV) drain normally to the left atrium (LA).

3D: three-dimensional; RA: right atrium; CT: computed tomography.

