

Supplementary Figure 1: Lower serum albumin levels by quintile are associated with higher 72-hour cumulative fluid balance

(n=940, $p < 0.001$ by Kruskal-Wallis rank sum test; data represented as median with IQR)